

National Child Measurement Programme: PCT Participation Year 6

Participation rate is the percentage of eligible pupils in Year 6 (aged 10-11 years) who were measured

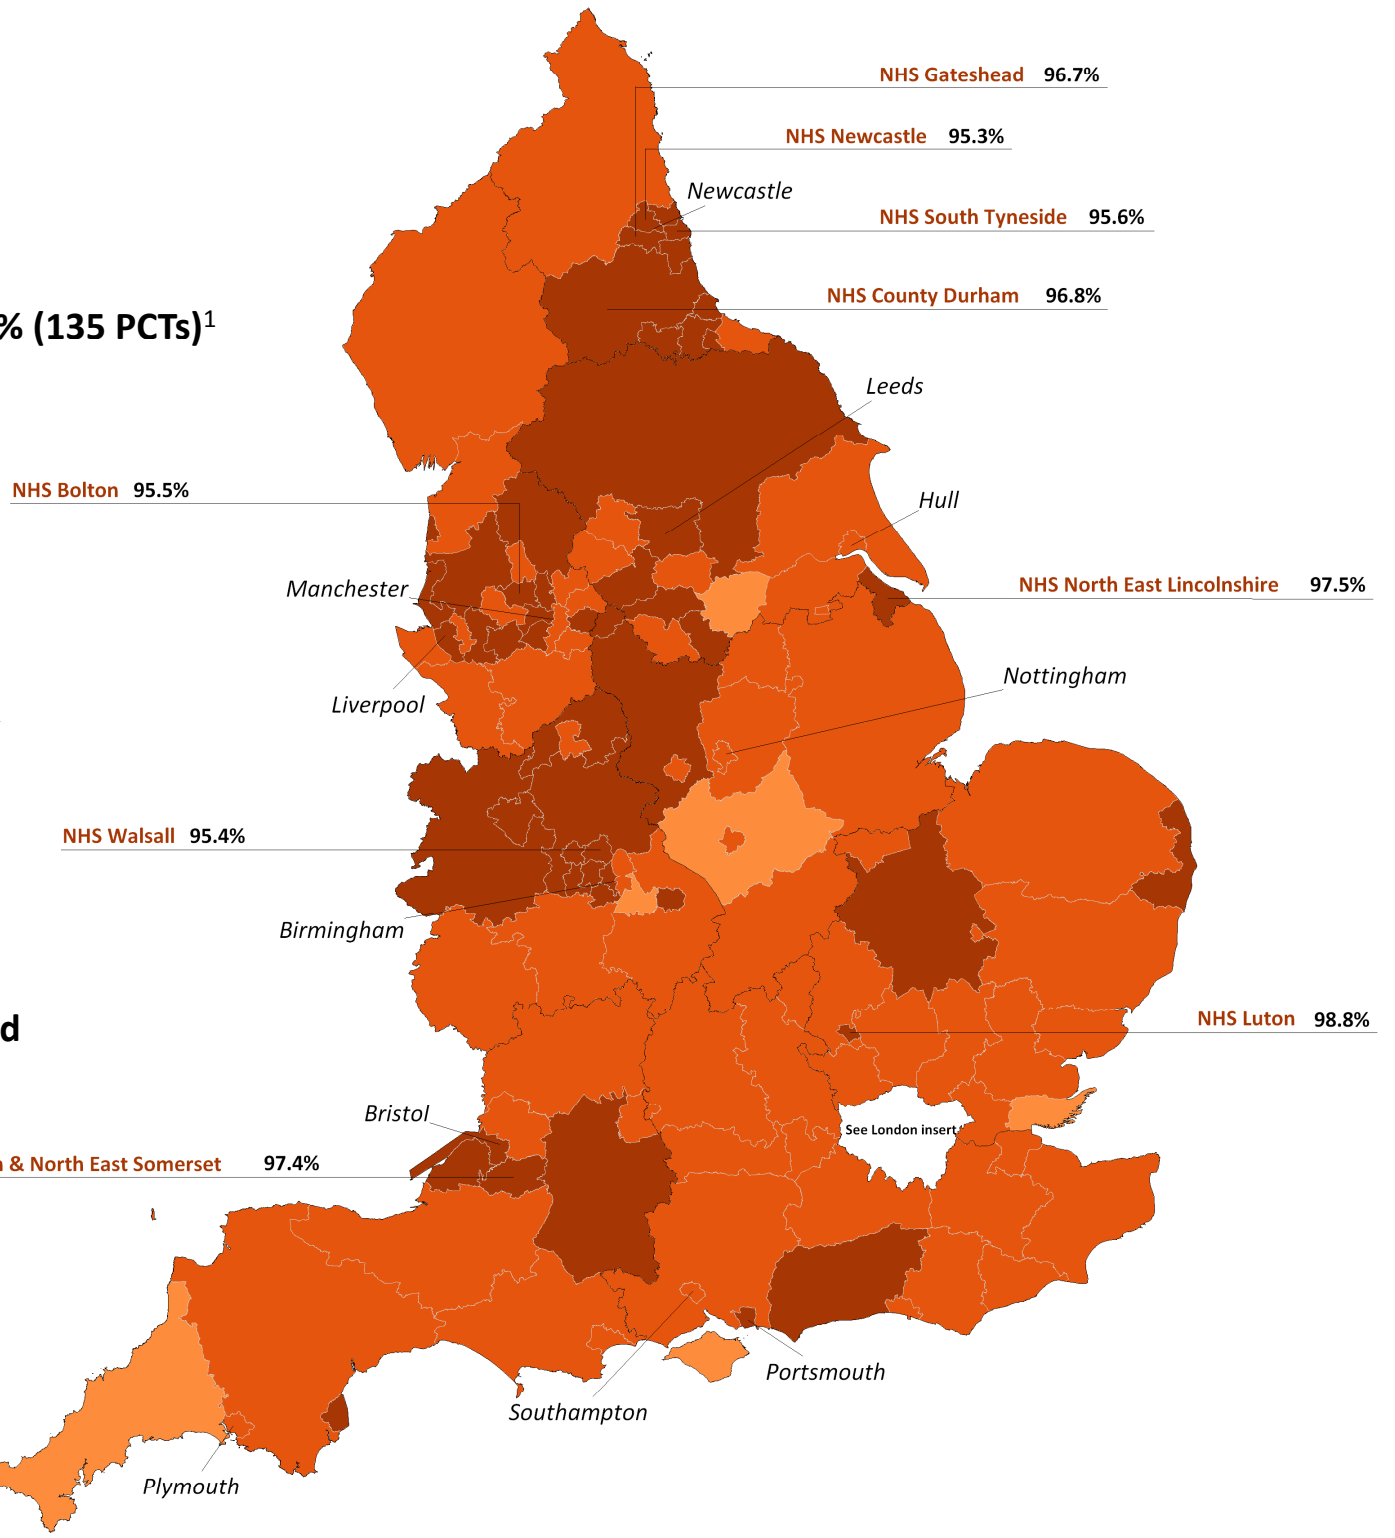

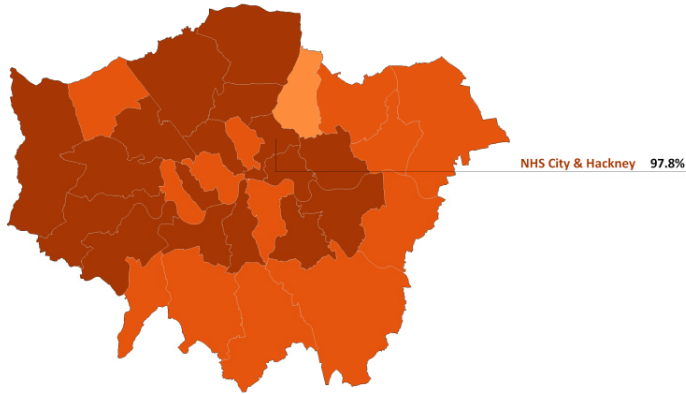

2008/09

National Year 6 participation rate: 89%
(497,680 children measured)

PCTs exceeding national target of 85%: 89% (135 PCTs)¹

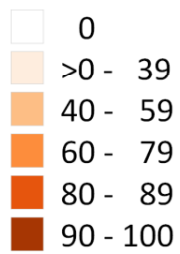

PCTs not achieving 80%: 5% (7 PCTs)

London insert:

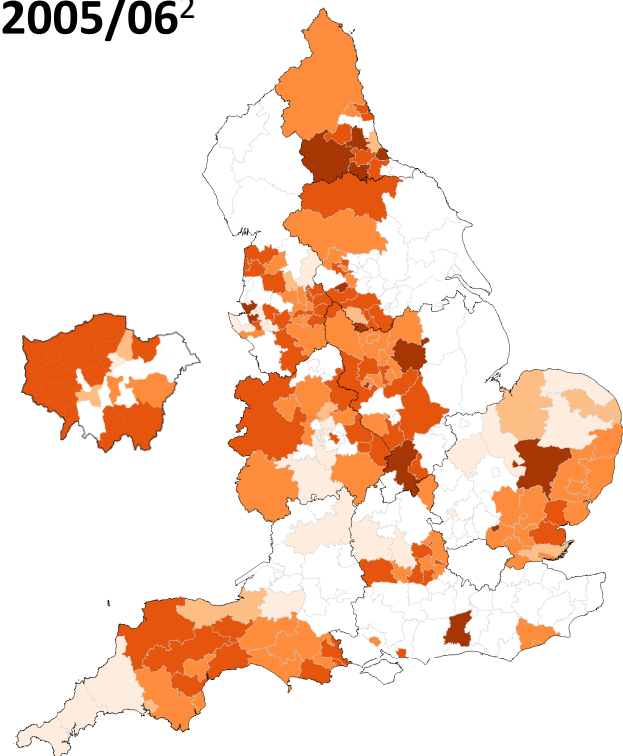

PCTs with the ten highest rates are labelled

NCMP PCT Participation (%)
Year 6 children

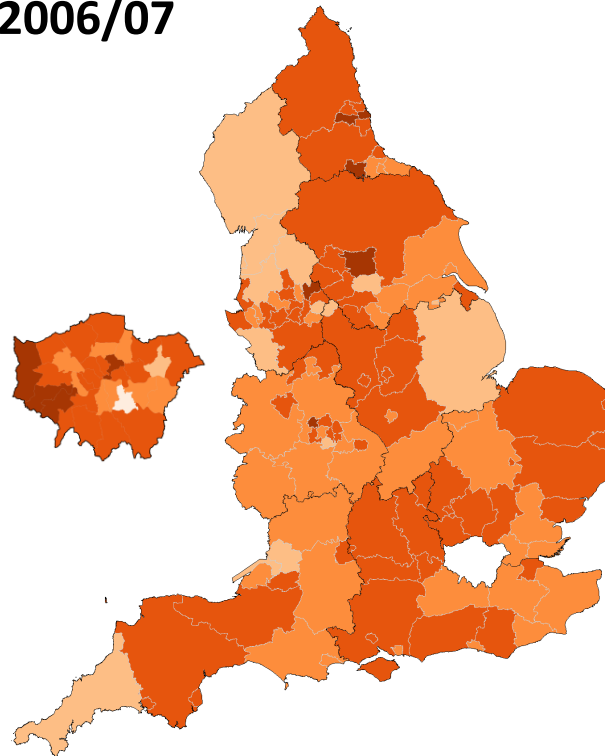

© Crown Copyright. All rights reserved SEPHO 100020290, 2009

2005/06²

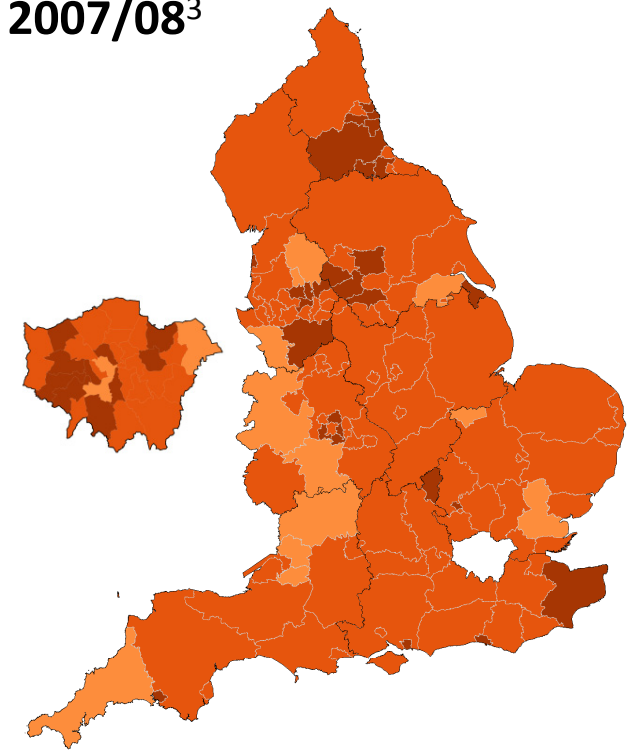

National Year 6 participation rate: 42%
PCTs exceeding target of 80%: 29% (87 PCTs)
PCTs not achieving 70%: 55% (168 PCTs)

2006/07

National Year 6 participation rate: 78%
PCTs exceeding target of 80%: 59% (90 PCTs)
PCTs not achieving 70%: 15% (23 PCTs)

2007/08³

National Year 6 participation rate: 87%
PCTs exceeding target of 85%: 74% (112 PCTs)
PCTs not achieving 80%: 10% (15 PCTs)

¹ Includes Barking & Dagenham PCT (84.7%) as participation rates are rounded for monitoring targets

² PCT boundaries changed in October 2006

³ National participation rate targets changed from 80% to 85% in 2007/08

Data source: National Child Measurement Programme & National Child Obesity Database datasets